Us communicating with you

All important communications will be made to you through the Tuesday Lecture and Blackboard Announcements (email).

You communicating with us

For all queries relating to the teaching materials or unit subject, you should attempt in-person discussion through either the Lecture activity or the Lab Session activity.

Emails with questions about the teaching materials or unit subject will likely receive a slow response because they can be addressed in timetabled teaching periods.

For any other concerns, you are encouraged to email the unit director Paul O'Dowd who will respond as soon as possible.
